

A Fair and Just Breakfast

Please Join Faith Aloud, ACLU and PROMO for a discussion on LGBT issues.

Thursday, July 7th, 2011

8:30-10:30 a.m.

Kirkwood Baptist Church
211 N. Woodlawn Ave
Kirkwood, MO 63122

A light breakfast will be provided.

Please RSVP to 314-652-3114 x 26

This is a community dialogue for faith leaders discussing common concerns and issues for the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender (LGBT) community.

Guest speakers will be:

Kelly Glossip, whose partner was a State Highway Trooper killed in the line of duty on Christmas Day in 2009.

ACLU lawyer, Tony Rothert, who will provide an update on the court case that is filed against the state on behalf of Mr. Glossip.

A.J. Bockelman, Director of PROMO, who will provide a general overview of obstacles commonly faced by the LGBT community.

The Rev. Anne Kelsey, Rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, who will share ways to be a welcoming religious community.